ANNOUNCEMENTS/CORRESPONDENCE:

Supervisor Blonshine introduced three members of the Park Patrol, Alexa, Faith and McKenna, who have been cleaning up in the park and reporting to the Supervisor on anything unusual going on in the park. Blonshine stated that the Park Patrol will be setting up a committee to work on painting picnic tables, planting flowers, and cleaning playground equipment.

Supervisor Blonshine read an e-mail from David Prevo, investor and developer of properties in the Chums Corners area regarding the Master Plan for the Commercial District.

Board Member Campbell informed the boards of the County Planning Awards Banquet on November 2.

BUSINESS TO DISCUSS:

a. Master Plan Visioning Session

Zoning Administrator Lindsey Wolf thanked everyone for coming, presented current results of the survey and explained the exercise she had planned for the evening. The members of the public and members of the boards broke into groups and discussed ideas that could improve life in Blair Township. The groups also worked on identifying positive assets of the Township and their visions for those assets. Each group then shared their ideas and visions.

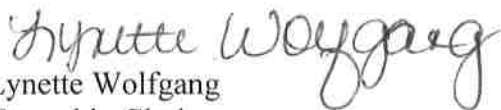

b. Medical Marihuana Discussion

The boards discussed the new medical marihuana licensing procedures.

EXTENDED PUBLIC INPUT:

Travis Clous, 5473 Hannah, stated that the existing zoning ordinance allows for most of the ideas that were talked about tonight. He also spoke regarding education and training for board members.
