

January 2019

The district works cooperatively with our various police agencies. Yorktown Police Chief Robert Noble visits school in the district each year to meet with students. Westchester County lands its helicopter as part of their community outreach.

BUDGET PREPARATION: The Board of Education and administration hold special meetings in January, February, March, and April (if necessary) to prepare the district budget for the next school year. Information about the budget and meetings is available on the district web page - www.lakelandschools.org

During the 2018-2019 school year, the District has allotted five snow days. Should school closings exceed those days, additional snow make-up days are: February 19, March 8, May 24, May 28, April 22, April 15, April 16, and April 17. The order of days is subject to change. If necessary, Superintendent's Conference days may become regular days of attendance.
