

March 18, 2021

Dear Rompot neighborhood residents and visitors,

The purpose of this letter is to invite you to our pre-construction call on March 31 at 5:30 p.m. to share updates on Cargill's planned rail yard on the Stewart Road property, including design developments based on the feedback we received during our January call.

We look forward to your input and our continued work together to ensure the best possible outcome for everyone.

To ensure everyone's safety, we continue to adhere to CDC's guidance regarding COVID-19 prevention and will be hosting this event via phone call and/or Webex, (a free, web-based conferencing service).
