DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS LICENSE

FRANCHISE SERVICES COMPLAINT INFORMATION

PLEASE READ PRIOR TO SUBMITTING A COMPLAINT TO THE DEPARTMENT

The Franchise Services Division of the Department of Business License is responsible for administration of all franchises with public utilities or involving Rights-Of-Way use, such as telecommunications, electric, natural gas, cable TV, video service, ambulance, monorail, and solid waste services providers operating in the unincorporated areas of Clark County. Franchise Services monitors franchise compliance with ordinance and contract terms and mediates unresolved issues between the consumer and the franchisee (within the scope of our authority).

Franchise Services Does Not Include:

- “franchises” for restaurants, retail or other national operations, for which questions should be directed to the Business License Department.
- connection/disconnection, change of services, waiving fees or making adjustments to accounts for any of the Franchisees. You will need to contact the Franchisee directly.

If you are unable to resolve the issue, after contacting the Franchisee regarding your request or complaint, you may contact Franchise Services at chap@ClarkCountyNV.gov for assistance or complete and submit the Franchise Services Complaint Form (link) as outlined on the form.

Franchise Services also assists in resolving consumer complaints by working jointly with the Cities of Las Vegas, Henderson, Boulder City and North Las Vegas on franchise issues involving Cox Communications. If your unresolved issue is regarding Cox Communications within these jurisdictions, you may leave a message on the Clark County Consumer Information Line (702) 455-8888 and your call will be returned. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.
