Sheriff Baca stated they have a new Deputy, in training, and will be assigned to the Moreno Valley but will be attending the Police Academy, in Santa Fe. The new Deputy will be back and forth for the next 6 to 7 months. Sheriff Baca also stated his office is short a staff member and with current budget is not able to fill that vacant spot and has had to restructure his office staff. He stated he did meet with the Eagle Nest Municipal Judge regarding dogs running at large and transporting them to a shelter. Deputies are not allowed to transport animals in their patrol vehicles and the Colfax County does not have a animal control officer. He did meet with the Colfax County Manager to find a solution to this problem. Sheriff Baca asked the Mayor and Council if they had any questions. tickets have been written in Eagle Nest Village. Sheriff Baca stated he cannot order his Deputies to write tickets. It is officer discretion when they stop a motorist if they will issue a traffic citation or a warning.
