Guidelines for Public Participation at County Board Meetings

- Public participation shall be limited to the “Audience to Visitors” agenda line unless a request is made at that time to speak during a different agenda line and is authorized by the County Board Chair, or unless the County Board Chair announces at the beginning of the meeting that a second period of time will be allowed relevant to a specific item on the agenda.
- State your name and address for the record and use the sign in sheet.
- By Board rule, comments are limited to 4 minutes per speaker.
- Please state the subject to be presented. Comments need to be limited to subjects that are relevant to the jurisdiction of the County Board and exclude subjects for which the federal, state, or local governments are solely responsible, or subjects not the responsibility of any level of government.
- Personal attacks or comments are out of order and will be so ruled by the chair.
- Questions may be presented and: become part of a discussion or agenda item at the next meeting if appropriate for County Board discussion and action; or may be referred to a committee for recommendation to the County Board.
- No debate, and No action, will be take place on public participation comments during the “Audience to Visitors”.
- The use of props, including signs, is not allowed during a County Board meeting.
- Distribution of materials and/or literature must be requested through the County Clerk and approved by the Board Chair.
- A remonstrance refers to a formal, written objection or protest raised by individuals or entities against a proposed action or decision of the Vernon County Board of Supervisors. It is a procedural mechanism that allows affected parties to voice their concerns and potentially influence the outcome of a decision. A remonstrance shall be reduced to writing and presented to the Clerk at least fourteen (14) days before the published date of a County Board meeting.
